

SHRUBS FOR ATTRACTING WILDLIFE

Plants that will attract wild things include those that can be used for nesting sites that may provide food or shelter that may provide any of the living needs of an animal, be it bird or four-legged critter.

JAPANESE AUCUBA (Aucuba japonica vars.)
BARBERRY (Berberis spp)
BEAUTYBERRY (Callicarpa spp)
SANTA BARBARA CEANOTHUS (Ceanothus impressus)
BLUE BLOSSOM CEANOTHUS (Ceanothus thyrsiflorus)
FLOWERING QUINCE (Chaenomeles spp)
PARNEY COTONEASTER (Cotoneaster lacteus)
ROCKSPRAY COTONEASTER (Cotoneaster microphyllus)
WINGED EUONYMUS (Euonymus alata)
SALAL (Gaultheria shallon)
HOLLY (Ilex spp)
HOLLY (Ilex aquifolium)
BOX HONEYSUCKLE (Lonicera nitida)
OREGON GRAPE (Mahonia aquifolium)
PERNETTYA (Pernettya mucronata)
MOCK ORANGE (Philadelphus lewisii)
FIRETHORN (Pyracantha coccinea)
FLOWERING CURRANT (Ribes sanguineum)
SKIMMIA (Skimmia japonica)
LILAC (Syringa spp)
RED HUCKLEBERRY (Vaccinium parvifolium)
VIBURNUM (Viburnum selected species)

Windmill Gardens – Come Grow With Us

- 1 -

Your Destination for Garden Inspiration
5816 162nd Avenue East, Sumner, WA 98390
www.windmillgarden.com